

COPS SEEK SOURCE OF HATE BOOKS STREWN ON STREET

Chicago Tribune - December 21, 1999

Skokie police on Monday were investigating the weekend dumping of booklets of hate literature on sidewalks and front lawns of homes.

Skokie Police Sgt. Michael Ruth said officers picked up about 150 copies of the 32-page booklets early Sunday after receiving complaints from 15 homeowners in central and east Skokie.

Ruth said the second page of the booklet includes a greeting from Matthew Hale , the founder of the World Church of the Creator.

The booklets were tossed on the same side of town where Benjamin Smith, a one-time follower of Hale, shot to death former Northwestern basketball coach Ricky Byrdsong over the summer.
