The Major Roadblock

HUBRIS, HUBRIS

We have the means to smash the Jewish network now in 1986. All we need to do is sort out the important from the trivial, separate fact from nonsense.

By Ben Klassen, P. M.

Right at the outset, up front, I want to make three cogent claims:

1. The White Race has enough informed militant activists to smash the Jewish powerhouse and grasp control of its own destiny now, in the year 1986.

2. In implementing Creativity, we have the blueprint, the creed, the motivation, the religious zeal to make the historic breakthrough that is within reach, not some distant future, but NOW.

3. Blocking such a glorious victory is a common defect of human nature that the White Race in particular is heir to. It is called HUBRIS.

What is hubris? Webster has several definitions, but let me coalesce them into my own version. Simply speaking, hubris is a combination of overweening personal egotism mixed with overwhelming jealousy. It is as old as the human race itself, a pernicious defect of human nature, a flaw that has been a major force in the shaping of history, and also in the wrecking of its constructive progress. The Jew has been particularly skillful in capitalizing on this fatal defect of character, and the White Race has throughout history been a willing and cooperative dupe in allowing the Jews to expertly manipulate us in their odious "Divide and Conquer" technique.

Why do I say that the White Race is particularly prone to this stupid flaw in their make-up? I say it because it is true. Why it is so, that I will not even attempt to explain, but let me cite a few examples.

A prime example of hubris are my own ancestors, the Mennonites. When I say this I do not intend to disparage this intelligent and industrious group of people, who, although relatively small in numbers, are dispersed all over the face of the earth. No, not at all. In fact, I am proud of my ancestors. They have many redeeming qualities. Besides being intelligent, hardworking and industrious, they have proven to be tenacious, honorable, relatively honest (compared to the average bear) and they have shunned race-mixing. They are clannish, and for this I am thankful, otherwise, I might not have been White. They have kept their blood lines pure for the last several hundred years, with nary a nigger,

For the Book

Let us hear Your story

On page 4 of last month's issue we have the interesting story of how Jeannette R. Deardorff went through a maze of confusion, misinformation and false starts before finally being led to Creativity and a clear picture of our racial heritage. On Page 1 of this issue the Rev. David Cevette tells his exciting story of how, after being mired in the swamp of Jewish degeneracy, he finally awoke to his racial consciousness and to CREATIVITY.

We have had several similar stories sent to us in the past. The idea has occurred to us that a collection of a number of such personal experiences would make an inspiring book, something to hand down to future generations.

Let us hear your story. Perhaps your experience, too, can add to the dynamic history of the evolution of CREATIVITY, the White Man's Religion.

My Road to Creativity

I stumbled into an Identity-Christian church and naively sang praises to Yahweh for five glorious months before I realized that God was not going to get off of his celestial throne in heaven to save this earth, or the White Race. Then I found Creativity.

My name is David and I am a White Racist. I have been in the White Racial Movement for 10 months now and am proud to say I am a Creator. Fortunately, circumstance did not allow me to waste much time in finding Creativity and becoming a member of this worldwide religion; and fate, as it may, has allowed me the opportunity to share with you the following story:

A couple of years before I became avidly involved in the White Racial Movement I lived in the city of Los Angeles, California. (I was 27 years old when I moved to Los Angeles from Jacksonville, Florida, where I had been honorably discharged from the United States Navy.) It was at this point in my life that I thought I should become an actor. I took all the necessary steps, finding an acting school, etc., and soon found myself attending daily sessions with other aspiring actors like myself. The school was owned and operated by Jews (what else is new?) and it was not long before my natural aversion towards arrogant Jewry began to surface and I suddenly found that acting was no longer to my liking. (Mostly because my inherent White intellect found their hubris overwhelming and far too imperious for my taste.)

But in the course of my novice acting career I was able to look behind the scenes of many of the major studios (Burbank Studios, M.G.M., Paramount, N.B.C.) and find, to my dismay, that the Movie Industry was totally permeated with Jewish Ideology. If you did not adhere to their stringent standards that THEY SET FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL ACTOR, you would be blacklisted from ever performing in the arts.

In the course of time I met many "insiders" and had "more than a golden opportunity" to pursue my career. I knew casting personnel at M.G.M. and could get into Burbank Studios and use their facilities almost at whim. But while visiting these various studios I felt extremely uncomfortable and found it harder and harder to hide my an Indian or a Jew intruding into their social or genetic structure. In Russia, where my progenitors lived for a century and a quarter, they would even shun marriage with a Russian, such being absolutely taboo.

But they did suffer from hubris, probably even more so than the average White kinsman. It is my observation that the Mennonites were highly motivated, competitive, ambitious to get ahead and were extremely conscious of what their neighbors and/or their relatives were doing. As a result they were also petty, jealous and back-biting about someone getting ahead of them. They had this compulsive habit of gossiping about everyone else's business and affairs that I found extremely distasteful, and some of them, (not all) including some of my relatives, would categorize other people into two groups.

(a) If someone got ahead of them and did better in the field of achievement they would be labelled as "stuck-up."

(b) If someone did worse than they did, they would poke fun at him as a ne'er-do-well, or as a village clown.

Either way, it was a no-win situation, a Catch-22.

Because I disliked this prudish, petty attitude I never did join the Mennonite Church, nor in my younger years was I ever attracted into the Mennonite circle of society. In fact, I did not appreciate some of the finer qualities of the Mennonite people until later in life when I began to study the make-up, the characteristics and the histories of the White Race. Today, I am thankful for both their faults and their virtues, for had they been otherwise, I would probably not be White.

Another example of hubris that I want to cite is the relationship between two outstanding inventors, namely Thomas A. Edison and Nikola Tesla, who lived in approximately the same era, shortly before, and after, the turn of the century.

Now we have all heard of the great Tom Edison and his life has been well chronicled and eulogized in books, newspapers and even in the Jewish movie industry, which has seen fit to glorify him in at least two movies, one when a boy, and one in his adult years.

Edison lived a long, productive and flamboyant life of 84 years, from 1847 to 1931, and since his story has been so well publicized there is no need for me to review it here.

Not so well known to the average public is the life of Nikola Tesla, one of the most brilliant and creative scientists and inventors in the history of the White Race, if not the most brilliant. His life spanned a period of 87 years, from 1856 to 1943, being born only nine years later than the world's most celebrated inventor.

Whereas Tesla and Edison lived in more or less the same era, and were both inventors principally in the field of electricity, there is, however, a remarkable difference in their make-up. Whereas Edison was primarily slow, plodding, and uneducated, (1 per cent inspiration, 99 per cent perspiration, according to his own diction) Tesla, on the other hand, had an extremely brilliant and creative mind, was well educated in science and math and understood the complex principles of physics more intricately than it has been the privilege of only a select few. He was, in short, a genius of the first calibre, far outshining anything Thomas Edison could ever envisage, and his achievements in the field of electricity, alternating current, generators, transformers, power transmission, A.C. motors, is so vast and extensive that it boggles the mind. Having studied engineering myself and having earned a degree in electrical engineering, I believe I can have some understanding of the magnitude of this great man's genius. It is my conclusion that most of the vast systems of electrical power generation and distribution as we know them today are based on the theories, inventions and designs produced by the great mind of Nikola Tesla.

Yet, whereas Edison is eulogized and lauded to the skies, and has been for a century, few people have even heard of Nikola Tesla. Whereas Edison rates much space and usually a picture in most encyclopedias, I find only a short 4 inch column for Tesla in the 1929 edition of the BRITANNICA, a 6 inch column in Funk & Wagnall's 1970 edition and nothing at all in Colliers (1952) Encyclopedia.

In the fall of 1983 I attended a Symposium for the Development of Unconventional Energy in Atlanta, more as an interested spectator than a contributing participant.

Convened at this 3 day meeting was an assemblage of approximately 300 of the most brilliant scientists that it had ever been my privilege to witness. They came from all over the world, Canada, U.S.A., France, and especially Germany. Dozens of lectures, papers, replete with slides, graphs, and sometimes even models of their inventions or ideas were presented. These ranged over a wide variety of technical and scientific subjects, but most predominant was the search for a clear, safe and endless source of energy. Among these was the goal of converting gravitational energy into practical use.

Anyone observing these scientists would have been amazed (as I was) that it was Nikola Tesla who was looked upon as the hero and the giant of all those scientists that had passed through history. Not Edison, not Einstein, but Nikola Tesla, and his scientific papers, especially on gravitational energy, were studied and reviewed with the greatest of intensity and interest. Edison was hardly even mentioned, and when he was, it was not in a favorable light.

Before the White Race can ever organize a steamroller movement of any kind it has to polarize around a racial religious core. Creativity is the Answer.

Anyone studying the development of our electrical power plants and the transmission of electric energy into our homes will find that back at the beginning, in the 1880's, Edison installed some of the first central power plants and transmission lines to carry electricity to streetlights and homes. His system was based on direct current (D.C.) instead of alternating current, (A.C.) and as a result, had severe limitations. For one thing, because D.C. cannot be used with transformers to step up, or step down, the voltage, he had to limit his voltage (in the transmission lines) in the range of 200 volts, otherwise it would be too dangerous for public use at the receiving end. This limited the transmission to approximately no more than half a mile from the central power plant, and furthermore (a) because of the low voltage in the transmission lines, the voltage dropped lower and lower the further down the line any hook-ups were made, and (b) much of the power was lost in the transmission lines themselves due to the low voltage used, and (c) it would take hundreds of small central plants to service cities like Chicago or New York.

It was not until Nikola Tesla came along a few years later and demonstrated the obviously superior advantages of alternating current. He invented transformers to step the voltage up or down as required. He invented several types of A.C. motors. In fact, he more than anyone else conceived most of the technical inventions that made possible the whole system of power transmission as we know it today. With high voltage (500,000 volts are common) transmission lines it is now possible to economically carry power for hundreds of miles, and deliver it to the consumer at any voltage specified.

Since this genius came out with so many brilliant inventions that it is impossible to list them here, I nevertheless want to point out one strange controversy that developed between Edison and Tesla, and the electrical industry as a whole.

Tesla's brilliant, fully structured electrical system with alternating current, transformers, high voltage transmission lines, and other accoutrements made Edison's direct current system as obsolete as a buggy whip almost overnight. But because he had a vested interest in the few already established plants, and because of his hubris (he didn't think of the A.C. system first) he viciously fought Tesla tooth and nail. He used every dirty tactic in the book to calumniate and discredit Tesla.

One dirty trick he used was a deceptive scare tactic. Since in some state the electric chair (using 2000 volts) had been introduced to execute those guilty of capital crimes, Edison quickly latched on to this incident and called alternating current the "death current," that it was highly dangerous to human beings and should never be used in the home.

Now the fact of the matter is (and Edison was well aware of it) that A.C. or D.C. are equally lethal or safe depending on the voltage used, the connections made, etc. But with the press largely with him, he used this argument exhaustively to prevent Tesla's superior A.C. generating and distribution system from being accepted by the public, and for some time he succeeded in delaying its acceptance.

It's a long story, but the lessons to be learned are these: (a) Because of his hubris and insufferable egotism Edison tried, and was able, to long delay the acceptance of a fully structured system that was far superior to his own makeshift set-up. (b) In the end Tesla's system prevailed because it was highly superior. (c) Propaganda and misconceptions can be highly destructive to progress and a rational solution to a problem.

We now come to the overwhelming problems that beset the world today. The foremost of all these is the omnipresent Jewish parasite that has fastened itself to the back of the White Race and is inexorably implementing our death and destruction. Strangely, no one seems to know what to do about it, least of all the White Race itself, most of whose members through the aegis of Jewish Christianity are actually subsidizing, eulogizing and aiding and abetting the parasite.

The brutal fact of our times is that the White Race is dying, it is being murdered by the Jews, and the White Race, instead of taking up arms against this vicious parasite, is too drugged with that Jewish mind-scrambler (Christianity) to even realize that it is being murdered.

Not every one is unaware, however. Since WWII we have had at least 20,000 fractured and fragmented "patriotic", "nationalist", "racist" groups, some phoney, some sincere, that have tried to sound the alarm in some fragmented and disjointed manner. Some are alarmed about the communist threat, some are alarmed about our financial chaos, some are alarmed about the IRS, some about encroachment on our right to bear arms, some that our Constitution is being undermined, some about the flood of illegal immigrants across our borders; and a dozen other worthy causes.

We Creators too, are concerned about all of these vital problems, and more. The difference between us and the 20,000 past failures is this: Whereas this "Deplore and Lament" crowd does nothing but cry "alarm," none of them has ever come up with a meaningful solution to the vast array of problems that now besets the White Race and must now be confronted and solved. Deplore and Lament! Deplore and Lament! Alarm! Alarm! But never a meaningful solution. At best their "solutions" were either non-existent, or they are frivolously frittering around the fringes of the problem. Few dared to get to the heart of the problem and confront Jewish Christianity.

We are sick and tired of hearing from the Deplore and Lament crowd. If you don't have a solution, don't bug me with your problems.

Professor Revilo P. Oliver, one of the most intelligent and knowledgeable men I have had the honor of meeting, has said categorically that "The Church Of The Creator represents the only rational religion of which I know." Hitler has said that in order to win the masses and build a powerful movement that we must focus on one central idea, and keep pounding away on it.

So what central idea can we, the White Race, effectively focus on, and polarize around? If we can't rally around a dynamic rational religion like Creativity that covers all the bases, what can we rally around? What are the alternatives?

Should we rally around the Identity movement that has one foot in the racial camp and the other in the enemy camp? An idea that is based on superstition, gullibility and historical nonsense? I think not.

Should we try to revive the Nazi approach? Hitler was, in my opinion, the greatest man the White Race has ever produced. Were he young and alive in America today (I wish he were!) I am sure he would take an altogether different approach than he did to save Germany in the 1920's, and I have a feeling that it would be amazingly similar to Creativity. Like the Klan, the Nazi party served a useful purpose in its time and place to solve the problems of their day, but for today both are as dead as a dodo and about as useful in solving the multitude of urgent problems that now confront us.

Should we embrace the "we love 'em all" approach? No battle, no war has ever been won — no meaningful movement has ever been built with a polyglot collection of diverse goals, loyalties or beliefs. It invariably dies of its own deadweight in a mass of confusion and dissention. (Read again Issue No. 10 in EXPANDING CREATIVITY, "A Polyglot Mind and a Polyglot Society — Who needs them?") Again, we go back to experience in Germany during the 1920's and 30's. Until one monolithic, well structured, well organized movement emerged, nothing happened. When such unified movement consolidated all into one ideology, it smashed the Jews.

Should we revive the ancient Norse religions? Hardly. Odin, Woden and Thor are not going to get off their rumps and save the White Race, anymore than is the Jewish JAHWEH. We have a deadly war on our hands and have more important things to do than waste our time playing childish games that should have been relegated to a kindergarten class in the first place. A spooky religion that couldn't hold its own a thousand years ago when it was at the height of its power cannot now be revived any more than trying to breathe new life into a long dead horse. Furthermore, its basic precepts really have very little to do with and are of little help in an ominous battle with which we are now confronted.

Should we rally around a revived Populist party? It, too, is ancient history and failed miserably many decades ago. It, too, does not really address and confront the real enemy, the Jewish parasite and its offspring, Jewish Christianity. In fact, it trips all over itself to tell the world it is not racist nor anti-Jewish. To embrace a wimpish program of that calibre is to live in a fool's paradise, and tantamount to joining the enemy.

If the above should "offend some delicate sensibilities", that is just too damn bad. We have a serious battle on our hands and can't be endlessly genuflecting to wet-nurse all the little bruised egos. No, time is running out and the Jews, Mexicans and niggers are closing in on us. Before this war is over there will be more than delicate little hubris' bruised. There will be blood flowing in the streets and millions of White Racial Comrades slaughtered. So let us forget all this nonsense about whose little "sensibilities" (read hang-ups) we might offend, and get on with the battle. Those who insist on hanging onto their little hang-ups and nurturing their little hubris aren't going to be of any help in that battle anyway, so we haven't lost anything.

Resorting to temporary "quick-fix" or makeshift "band-aid" solutions will no longer suffice. Creativity has the TOTAL SOLUTION for all eternity.

There is an alternative, and we have it — an idea to which any rational, militant White man or woman can give their total loyalty and dedication.

We Creators have a real, lasting solution. We have a racial religion to offer to the White Race, the first meaningful, genuine White racial religion in 6,000 years of civilized history.

It is comprehensive, complete, clear, consistent, coordinated, constructive, conclusive, cohesive and cogent. It covers the whole spectrum, the whole ball of wax. It is not makeshift, not a temporary stopgap solution, nor is it a patchwork of haywire and chewing gum. It was tailor-made to not only solve the dilemma the White Race finds itself in today, but also to give our race a sane and sound philosophy to live by and prosper for the next million years.

There is only one movement in recent history that has challenged the odious Jewish power structure and overcome it, if only on a regional basis, and that is the National Socialist movement of Adolf Hitler when it came to power in Germany in 1933. True, it was later smashed by the combined forces of all the other White nations under the aegis of the Jewish monster, but that is another story. The fact is, it did successfully wrest power away from the Jewish parasite in Germany and we should learn some powerful lessons from it.

1. After Germany's defeat in 1918, some 2000 "nationalists" (and otherwise) groups sprang up to try to solve the terrible dilemma in which the German people found themselves.

2. There was much bickering, jealousy and infighting amongst them.

3. The numerous fractured and fragmented parties or groups were powerless to stem the Jewish juggernaut until Hitler's Nazi party became the one and only powerful battering ram and took over the German government.

4. There were no "mergers". Hitler's movement absorbed former members of the various splinter groups, including thousands of converted former members of the Communist Party. A few leaders of the former splinter parties joined him (such as Julius Streicher) but most of them did not. Had the leaders sublimated their hubris and had the foresight to join with Hitler, the Jews could have been overcome in 1924 perhaps, instead of 1933. How this might have changed the course of history we can only speculate.

In any case, the main, the most cogent lesson is this: until the overwhelming majority of the German activists consolidated and polarized into one powerful movement, nothing was achieved. Once they did, they took over the power of the state, drove out the Jews, and constructive solutions were rapidly implemented.

Sixty years later, we here in America are faced with a similar situation in overcoming the Jews, although the racial problems facing us are much different and really encompass the whole White Race on a global basis.

Whereas Hitler's movement was tailor-made to solve the political and racial problems for the Germans of 60 years ago, the Creativity movement in a completely different milieu is tailor-made to solve the racial problems of the White Race on a global scale, the only way it can now be approached. Whereas Hitler was highly successful in uniting the Germans in the 1930's, it is our goal to consolidate, unite, arouse and polarize anger towards these parasitical Jews and faggots that I came into contact with. (A prerequisite to being an actor is to be around a lot of Jews and homosexuals and this is so very repulsive.) Not only can you not avoid them, you must compete with them, and what were you competing for? You were competing for a chance to LIE to White America through carefully scripted movies and plays and sitcoms, designed to manipulate and destroy the White Race. (The very fact that the Jews call a "casting-call" a "cattle-call" is a direct insult to the many actors that line up for a chance to be in a movie. But most of the younger actors and actresses are not aware that they are "mere tools" in the Jews' perfidious game. They really believe themselves to be aesthetic individuals.)

At the same time I was attending school I was working for the Smith, Barney, Harris and Upham stock brokerage in Beverly Hills as a stockbroker's apprentice. Here too, I marvelled as I watched the Jew on the front line. It was while slaving over the phone trying to sell Municipal Bonds and other indemnities that I overheard certain Jews as they would plot and plan to create all kinds of rumours on the stockmarket; and then they would capitalize on the consumers' fear, because, after all, they made the rumour up in the first place and knew exactly what to do when they drew the desired reaction. (A few thousand dollars here, a few thousand dollars there, ad infinitum.)

I was fired from Smith-Barney for lying on my application form but I went immediately to Shearson/American Express and talked a White Stockbroker into hiring me as a free agent. This office was as "Jewish" as Smith-Barney, but the ones that were not Jews were what Ben Klassen calls "Kosher Konser-vatives." These Kosher Konser-vatives had found a way to earn good money, and damn it, they were going to earn it, no matter what, even if it meant selling their race down the river. Their philosophy is that with all the money they have earned, they will be floating on a fat mattress and therefore need not worry about rough waters ahead.

I stayed there for three months. One Jew, whose name I will not mention, told me one day, "Dave, if you stay in this business and become a stockbroker, you will receive a legal license to rob!" I smiled at him and mumbled something back. My opinion of Jews was becoming more and more concrete. They were fleecers of the public purse.

Nevertheless, I was still very naive and even somewhat enthralled by the "polylot" atmosphere of Los Angeles. It seemed to me that everybody got along just fine, regardless of color. I hoped my intense dislike towards Jews would subside and I would be able to pursue my career without interruption. WRONG.

So I decided to be a rock star! I must have auditioned for a hundred bands in about two months time and the story was the same with all of them. They either had one or two Jewish band members, a Jew producer, director or sound technician. Toss in Jewish opinion, Jewish ideology, Jewish lyrics (pro-race mixing, anti-White) and finally Jewish management and you reach an inference of "What is good for the Jew is fine, what is bad for the Jew — is blacklisted."

In this course of time I managed to perform in a number of nightclubs and participate in a couple of recording sessions with some up and coming musicians. It was while performing one evening that I realized that as long as I pursued a career in the "arts," I, too, would be a Jewish "tool." You either worked for them or you didn't work. There is an old adage that goes something like this: If you can't beat them, join them. Well, needless to say, I didn't join the Jews.

History has proven repeatedly that a racial religion is the most powerful force in the world in the shaping of the destiny of nations and races.

Those were the experiences that led to my becoming a White racist. The fact that I was a deluded philistine myself, I will surely admit.

In the six months I worked for the two stockbrokerage firms, I sold $360,000 worth of tax free bonds and other indemnities. I received very little for my effort and the Jews at Smith Barney didn't even so much as shake my hand when I walked dejectedly out the door. Fate had decided that the Jew and I were not compatible.

As the greyhound bus pulled away from Los Angeles, I knew in my heart that someday I would return there. I still do not know when or why, but I will. And one day we will defeat them and rip apart their propaganda fortress and that is when my life will feel complete. Until then, I will work towards that day.

Personally, I owe "The Order" a compliment for a wonderful job done in acquiring "front page" publicity for the White Racist movement. I can honestly say beyond a doubt that if it were not for their courage and valor I might not be here today. As a matter of fact, the Jewish Newspapers front page extravaganza about The Order is what inspired me to move to Spokane, Washington and begin attending church fifty miles away in Idaho at Aryan Nations.

I'll never forget that first Sunday I attended Aryan Nations. I hitchhiked (the only thing in life that's free) there and arrived in about three hours time. I walked into the church service while it was in session and was cordially greeted and offered admittance into the sanctuary. There were not that many people there, but I did noticed a few suspicious glances come my way as I entered.

I took a seat and listened to the sermon that the Reverend Butler was giving. He was talking about the Christian bible and some razzmatazz about how the White Race were the real Chosen People and he rattled off verse after verse of so-called documented, biblical proof.

The first thought that entered my mind was how nice it was to know that the Jews weren't the "real Chosen Ones." The second thought was that this preacher, Butler, was ingenious for thinking this up. I had never in my wildest dreams thought of ever accusing the Jews of NOT BEING THE CHOSEN ONES. The third thought was, I don't care if they are the Chosen Ones or not. I'm just damned happy to be around some people that recognize the Jew for his perfidious actions.

My fourth and final thought was that I did not really understand a word that he was saying as he preached a number of biblical passages that convicted the Jews of being descendants of Cain, and then something about Cain being the son of the devil himself. Finally, since Cain was the son of the devil, the Jews thereby received the ignominious title of "sons and daughters of the devil." He also produced some nebulous and rather vague proof contending the Aryan Race to be the true children of Israel. Therefore the Lord's battle-axe was supposedly "ours for the praying." We (the Aryans) were set to conquer the world, it was in our bloodline, and damn it, all we had to do was wait for the great and mystical Yahweh to come down and save us from the wicked and perfidious Jew. Author's Note: The Reverend Richard Butler was not the greatest elocutionist but I did gather that he was a sincere man that truly believed in the doctrine he preached.

I readily accepted all of his words as the truth and as he approached the peroration of his sermon I felt a sudden belonging, a sudden surge of hope for the White Race. Now, I realized that everything was going to be okay and my heart and soul were aflame with a burning desire to meet this man they called Jesus. After all, now that I knew that Jesus was a racist, I put him on the top of my list with Adolf Hitler.

The weeks turned into months and I became a regular at Aryan Nations. I met some very nice people and for the first time in my life I could share my true feelings aloud. Before I met the Aryan Nations crowd I had only my books about Adolf Hitler to keep me company and to give me hope for the White Race.

Soon I began studying testbooks on Identity Christianity and found myself in heated altercations with anyone that opposed my new found belief. It was after months of laborious effort and painstaking research of Identity Christian doctrine that the following occurred: I was in the lobby of the hotel I lived in when the proprietor came in and was talking to some of the residents about Christianity. I thought this would be a great opportunity to proselytize somebody over to Identity Christianity's cause, so I ambled over to the group and engaged in what I hoped would be a sweet sounding victory for myself and Yahweh. Oh, was I ever wrong. It seemed the proprietor was a studied Christian, but of a different shade than the Identity denomination, or any denomination for that matter. He gave a fifteen minute speech that would have had the most didactic of Roman Catholic Priests rewriting their Holy Texts with which they teach their catechumen. I won't bore you with details in this short article I am writing, but I will say it was convincing enough to render me helpless and lost for any witty comeback or riposte. So I remained silent and listened as his loquacious venom slowly killed all the beliefs I had come to trust.

It was after this verbal thrashing that I realized that for every Christian belief one held, there was another Christian hiding in the brush, ready to prove you wrong. After that I began to seriously doubt the spooks in the sky swindle. I attended Aryan Nations only to enjoy the company of other racists. I did so for five months.

BRICKBATS & BOUQUETS

Dear Rev. Messick:

As you can tell by my new address, the government has sent me to El Reno, Oklahoma to one of their ??? places.

I have not heard from you in months, which is due to the repression that existed at Memphis.

I went to trial in the denial of my bible, and other "creator" related issues in Memphis on Dec. 13th and 16th. Well..... WE WON! I now have my bible, and the Judge would not award me, (the Church) the thirty thousand damages, (10,000 plus, 20,000 punitive) but I have appealed THAT to the 6th circuit in Cincinnati, Ohio.

I now have the White Man's Bible, as well as Salubrious Living, but I am in need of "Nature's Eternal Religion" which will complete some of my learning, it would be worth seeing if our papers would come here, also.

I had to represent the Church by myself, as there was no way I could have counsel, and the courts would not assign me counsel. I'll send you the transcript of the trial as soon as the court makes it up for my appeal, but the main thing is — they CANNOT keep the bible out of the prison! And that's a positive step forward. If the Court of Appeals awards the damages, then we'll be able to build, and help other Brothers and Sisters. Thirty thousand is not a lot — but it will help the Church, and our race.

Let me hear from you, and did you get the poems I sent you? I know many of my letters have not reached you.

For A Whiter and Brighter World,
In loyalty,

Dear Fellow Aryan,

I just got the latest issue of "Racial Loyalty." It's a good paper except for the ridiculing of my Christian religion.

Jesus was not a Jew. If you would read the Bible with open eyes, you could see it. Atheist don't bother me, but blasphemy from people who are supposed to be on my side in the fight for White Power do. (Ed. Note: I have read your Jewish-Christian bible for the last 60 years, not only with open eyes, but also a rational, discerning, open mind, applying the same critical tests of evidence as I would in any other area. Your flat claim that Jesus was not a Jew is completely contrary to the wild story narrated in your "holy cow" version. According to the book he was the seed of David, circumcised on the eighth day, etc., — a Jew of the first water, if he ever existed at all.)

I think your type of atheistic blasphemy appeals only to educated fools and under educated morons.

I am associated with the Ku Klux Klan, which is a Christian organization. The Jew-lover Virgil Griffin is not in any way associated with us. In case you didn't know it he has a "converted" Jew as Grand Dragon of Virginia. His so-called Christian Knights have no place with real White Christian groups.

As far as your group goes, you have no place with real White Revolutionary Patriots! (Ed. Note: Who in the hell are you to tell us what we have a right to do?)

For Christ & Hitler!

Exalted Cyclops,

(Ed. Note: Your letter strongly confirms what we have been saying all along: The Jewish mind-scrambler known as Christianity is completely incompatible with a sane, meaningful racial movement and only adds clutter, confusion, and divisiveness.)

Dear Mr. Klassen:

I just returned from a trip to New Orleans, LA., and I must say that I was shocked at what I observed. What was once a great White city of Aryan culture has now degenerated into a city of niggers, Jews and other mud races.

I went to the White Monument which was dedicated to White

71 Acre Tennessee Farm for Sale

A struggling White Couple fighting the Jewish tyranny urgently needs cash. They have a beautiful piece of property for sale in Tennessee that would make an ideal refuge from the melee of the big cities. Upon a successful sale they have volunteered to make a handsome contribution to the Schools for Gifted Boys. Here is their description:

71 acres — Perry County, Tennessee. Approximately 10 miles East of the Tennessee River. 100 miles West of Nashville and 120 miles East of Memphis.

Approximately 30 acres open — for crops or livestock. Livestock can graze on 70 acres. Pure spring on property and approximately 1/2 mile of pure, clear stream, spring fed — all year around. New bridge over stream to property. Large barn — 6 furrowing stalls — corn crib — chicken houses — large smoke house. Many peach trees. All fenced and cross fenced — large stand of trees. Hardwood nut trees, cedar, oak, etc. Electric on property and septic tank in. Guaranteed Hallmark perfect. A perfect retreat, perfect peace — no traffic. $70,000 cash. $15,000 to be donated to The Church of the Creator, and The School for Gifted Boys.

Any of our readers who might be interested please write: Farm, Church of the Creator, P. O. Box 400, Otto, N. C. 28763 and we will forward to owners.

Congratulations, Rev. John!

John and Gabriella Westphal have just become the parents of a bouncing baby boy. His name is Ernst and he was born Jan. 13. You may recall that Rev. John wrote a letter in Racial Loyalty No. 23 in which he set out to become the progenitor of 1 billion White descendants in 8 generations. We need millions of White babies and we need more like Rev. John and Gabriella Westphal.

More (White) Power to you!

ROAD TO CREATIVITY

During my fifth month, a part time member of Aryan Nations gave me a copy of the book, "The White Man's Bible." I took the book home and read all 451 pages. I found the book to be extremely interesting and it seemed to fill in all the gaps that Christianity left wide open. It arrived at the crux of the problem without dilly-dallying around with niceties and formalities. It did not throw the burden of responsibility off on a set of ethereal spooks in the sky. Instead, Creativity seemed to point its finger at historical facts; facts that could be researched and verified and therefore worthy of believing. Whereas in the Jewish Christian Bible there is no archival proof to back it up, Ben Klassen's research, on the other hand managed to dig up facts that the Jews, I'm sure, would rather have been able to keep locked up in secrecy, unknown to modern man, hidden from our future progeny. Through hard work and deliberate research our Pontifex was able to put together such

Rahowa!

The White Race is enmeshed in a race war that will not end until it, the White Race, is either exterminated or it inhabits the Planet Earth supreme. Although most members of Nature's Finest either don't realize it, or whether it is stupidly trying to ignore it, is beside the point. The Jews, the niggers and mud races are keenly aware of it and will wage it unto death, whether we want it or not.

When a people stoop so low as to abjectly bow to the traitorous power structure to "honor" Martin Lucifer Koon as a hero above their own traditional White heroes, (Washington, Jefferson, etc.) then it is time to declare open war. I cannot think of anything more humiliating than for Nature's Finest to surrender their own honor and abjectly kow-tow to a nigger reprobate whose FBI record was so odious it has to be locked up from public scrutiny until the year 2027. How low can you stoop?

The mud races have foisted war on us. There is no escaping it. We therefore are forced to pick up the challenge, wage it fiercely, no quarter given, until victory is ours. We must also give it identity, give it a name. The Moslems have their name for theirs. It is Jihad. We need to have our own and the Church of the Creator has coined a word for it.

The word is Rahowa! It means White Racial HOly WAR. (Pronounced rah-hoh'-ah.)

Let us wage it fiercely, fearlessly and tenaciously until victory is ours.

Rahowa!

BRITISH ISRAEL — IDENTITY

A Vice-President in charge of advertising for a large cosmetics firm was chatting with a friend, exchanging a little banter over a few drinks.

"How can you make such fantastic claims for your cosmetics?", asked the friend.

"It's easy," replied the V. P. "We just lie like hell."

"But how do you get away with it?"

"No problem," replied the V. P. "The women desperately want to believe that our face creams and lotions and potions will do all those wonderful things for them. So they just buy, buy, buy. They're happy, and we make millions."

This brings us to the subject I want to expose and examine in more detail, namely, the art of spook-peddling, which is even more profitable and more deceptive than promoting cosmetics.

Today, with the aid of the electronic Jew, one of the most lucrative (and deceptive) rackets on the modern scene is the nefarious art of peddling spooks in return for millions. It is a con-game without parallel. We have such unholy con-artists as Oral Roberts, Rex Humbard, Jerry Falwell, Garner Ted Armstrong, Billy Hargis, Billy Graham, Jimmy Swaggert, Pat Robertson, Jim Bakker, Robert Schuller, and the late, great Jim Jones of Guyana fame, and slews of lesser con-men on the boob-tube selling the spooks-in-the-sky swindle, day in and day out. Many of these top-notch con-artists take in forty, fifty and sixty million dollars of funny money a year, Federal Reserve notes that are as phoney as the lies these swindlers are peddling to their gullible victims. With or without the electronic boob-tube, this racket has been going on for thousands of years.

However, in the last century or so a new breed of purveyors has been emerging that has given the standard hellfire and brimstone crowd a new twist, and that is the British-Israel wing, also known as the Identity movement. Since the accompanying Liberty Bell article gives a scholarly history of this movement, I need not repeat it here, but rather I want to focus on the impact it has had, and is having today, in the crucial battle for the survival of the White Race.

Some of these Christians, those who have discovered what skillful and congenital liars the Jews are, of how obnoxious and repugnant they have been throughout history, found themselves in a serious dilemma. Since most of their precious bible is Jewish from cover to cover and keeps gushing repeatedly about Jahweh's endless and palpitating love affair with these despicable reprobates, they found this hard to take. So some ingenious inventor came up with a brilliant new twist. Why not claim that the Jews are not at all the real Israelites, but children of the Devil, and we, the White Race are the genuine article.

Why, with a little sleight of hand, some clever juxtapositioning and a lot of gullibility, we can claim that the "Ten Lost Tribes of Israel" wandered into an uninhabited Europe sometime in the first millennium B.C.E. and rapidly populated it from one end to the other. Isn't that wonderful? Now we, the White Race, can claim that we are the real Israelites and the scurvy Jews are nothing but phoney impostors. Isn't that great? (Why, with the same procedure, you could be Napoleon Bonaparte reincarnated. All it takes is a little bit of INSANITY.) Ipso facto, the problem is solved. Now WE are the ones that the Jahweh of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob so dearly loved that he would knock himself silly in order to ingratiate himself with these reprobates that had all the morals of an alley cat. How lucky can you get?

In a nutshell, that is the position of the Identity movement.

There are so many misconceptions contained in the fraudulent assumptions of the Identity movement that it is hard to list them all. But I will try to sort them out.

(1) There is not a shred of evidence that the Jewish tribal god of Jahweh existed in the supposed time of Abie, Ikey, and Jakey, or exists today, anymore than that Santa Claus or Mother Goose exists, or existed.

(2) There is not a shred of evidence that Abraham, Isaac or Jacob (or Moses, for that matter) ever existed, and all indications are that they are no more than fictitious figments of the Jewish imagination.

(3) There is not a shred of historical evidence that there ever were any Ten Lost Tribes, and if they ever existed and got lost, all I can say is GOOD RIDDANCE. Too bad the other two didn't disappear also.

(4) It is absolutely preposterous to claim that Europe was an empty wasteland until the "Lost Ten Tribes of Israel" entered into it and suddenly populated it. It is contrary to Greek history, Roman history, Celtic history, Frankish history, Teutonic history and all other authentic history. It also contradicts all archaeological evidence that has been unearthed in the last several centuries, including cave drawings in France, Spain and other parts of Europe. Many of these artifacts and drawings by our White European ancestors date back as much as 20,000 years. For a thorough anthropological study of our ancestry, I suggest you read the November issue of National Geographic. Also Madison Grant's classic, "Passing of the Great Race" is an excellent treatment on the subject of racial movement in prehistoric Europe.

(5) We now come to the final question: considering what sleazy characters Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were, according to the highly touted Old Testament itself, who but a deranged idiot WOULD WANT to have these lecherous pimps, murderers and whoremongers for their ancestors? I would much prefer to have a set of genuine old-fashioned horse thieves for my progenitors than these sleazy Jewish reprobates.

Besides being a shiftless nonentity at the age of 75, Abraham (so the stupid story goes) was a footloose pimp who peddled his (half-sister) wife to the highest bid-

Dear Ben Klassen,

I hate your disgusting, foul guts. You must be a Jew.

No, you are a Devil. After all, that's what Jews are. I have seen and read portions of your book.

I detest you and you should be burned alive or spate upon as an evil degenerate as you are. You have said the most detestable things about God's Holy Race. The Aryan people who were created in the image of God — Yahweh.

I know you are either a devil or a traitor.

Objectives of Our Comparison Series

1. To illustrate by means of detailed comparison that in CREATIVITY we have finally achieved a genuine, bonafide, comprehensive racial religion for the White Race that is the equal of, or superior to, any religion in history.

2. That our religion makes more sense, is more logical, is more complete and better planned and organized; it is, in fact, more effectively structured than any of the established old "great" religions of the world.

3. That in order to survive at all, the White Race must now polarize around its own racial religion.

4. To convince all the polyglot and diverse White racial groups and leaders that in CREATIVITY lies the salvation of the White Race and the sooner we unite under the banner of Creativity, the sooner we will be on our way in waging an effective battle for the survival of the White Race.

Think about it. If not Creativity, what else is there?

Identity vs. Creativity — A Comparison

A. Basis of Belief.

The Identity movement is a fragmented, loose and scattered conglomerate, and no specific set of beliefs would accurately characterize all of its many parts. The best we can do, therefore, is to generalize, and in so doing we can state two beliefs that the many fragmentary groups have in common: (a) They strongly espouse Jewish Christianity as portrayed in the Old and New Testaments, and (b) the peculiar twist that the "Ten Lost Tribes of Israel" wandered into, and populated Europe, something not even remotely suggested by either the Old or New Testament, and most emphatically repudiated by all authentic history to which we are heir in today's civilization.

These two beliefs are both based on pure fantasy and absolute nonsense. Furthermore, they completely contradict one another. Anyone who believes in the Jewish Bible (O. T. & N. T.) can hardly come to such an absurd and paradoxical conclusion. In fact, the whole reasoning process here exemplifies some bizarre mental gymnastics, and defies all logic. Starting with an unsubstantiated hypothesis (the spooks in the sky theory) it is followed by a non-sequitur (that the historic Europeans are the "Ten Lost Tribes of Israel", whose historic existence is extremely questionable in the first place.)

CREATIVITY on the other hand is based on Logic and Common Sense, the Eternal Laws of Nature, and a critical study of past history. It faces reality and accepts the facts of life and the universe as they are. It seeks through logic and reason to build a better life for our race and future progeny.

B. Goals and Objectives.

Again, the goals of the Identity people are fuzzy and clouded, but can be best described as (a) fighting for the survival of the White Race, and (b) the spreading of Jewish Christianity. The ultimate goal, it would seem, would be to have the White Race again ruling America and the world with Christianity being the dominant power over the White Race (and the world), not unlike the tyrannical power it once wielded during the Dark Ages.

CREATIVITY'S goals have been spelled out repeatedly, and they are: The survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race, with ultimately the White Race inhabiting (solely) this Planet Earth, devoid of mud races. This can be further expanded into the 20 Points of Creativity as set forth in Racial Loyalty No. 31.

C. Racial Attitude.

Here the Identity movement and Creativity have much common ground. Identity preaches White Supremacy, whereas Creativity goes one step further and advocates not White Supremacy, but complete White hegemony and exclusive possession of all the good lands of this Planet Earth.

D. Organizational Structure.

The Identity movement is a loose conglomerate of many parts with no central point of focus, and little coordination.

The Church of the Creator has its World Center near Otto, N. C. and its organization is based on the Leadership Principle. It has ordained ministers who represent the creed and program of the Church in most of the States in this country, and also several foreign countries. Its creed and program are clearly spelled out in its Three Basic Books, and Expanding Creativity, a supplement. Its creed and program are clear, comprehensive, consistent, complete and well-structured, covering the whole spectrum of eugenics, race, religion, morals, politics, economics and culture for the present and future welfare of the White Race.

der, not only once, but repeatedly, for ill-begotten loot. He murdered a number of people. He fornicated with his maid. He and Sarah had their first child when both were ninety-nine. (Would you believe?) Isaac followed a similar pattern. Jacob deceived his senile, blind father and betrayed his brother Esau, all with Yahweh's explicit blessings. Then there is that great Lion of Israel, Judah, who for-nicated with his daughter-in-law believing she was a common roadside whore. There is the big Star of the Show, King David, who while wooing King Saul's daughter Michal, brought a dowery of 200 foreskins from slain Philistine warriors to Saul. (Read it for yourself: 1 Samuel, Ch. 18, Verse 27). For more sick, lurid details read Chapter 10, "The Old Testament" in Nature's Eternal Religion.

Now I ask any sane, intelligent White Man who has not yet gone

British Israelism: White Men in the Wilderness

By permission of Liberty Bell magazine, PO Box 21, Reedy, WV.

That part of the world which the Romans called Palestine was known as Canaan to its original inhabitants, a luckless people who were displaced from their homeland by twelve tribes of Hebrew-speaking invaders who employed the rather unedifying methods of conquest described in the Old Testament book of Joshua. After consolidating their gains, the Hebrews under the rule of Jereboam, around 900 B.C.E., divided themselves into a northern kingdom of Israel and a southern kingdom of Judah. Two centuries later, the ten tribes living in Israel became the notorious Ten Lost Tribes when they were carried off into captivity by the Assyrians. And thus came to pass a great mystery.

Perhaps the Gnostic heretic who held that the world was created by an evil demiurge was correct, because the truth concerning most supposedly great mysteries is usually either unpleasant or boring. The truth about the ten tribes, which falls into the latter category, is certainly no exception to this rule. Sensible historians have concluded that the lost tribes were assimilated into the Assyrian nation, with what effect we do not know save for the fact that the Assyrians soon thereafter disappeared from history.

The boring facts, however, have not stopped various hopeful or imaginative people who have rushed forth with delightful nonsense in explanation of the Ten Lost Tribes. The Puritans, hopeful that they might have a chance to convert ten-twelfths of Jewry, believed at first that the American Indians were the errant Hebrews. Americus Symmes, son of John Cleves Symmes (1742-1814), and exponent of the hollow earth theory, fantasized that explorers in quest of confirmation for his father's theory would find that they had been anticipated by the missing tribes who had long ago discovered the inner earth to be an ideal redoubt against Assyrians, Babylonians, and Roman tax-collectors. Finally, more than one science fiction writer has found an extraterrestrial abode for the lost tribes, a whimsy that was possibly the literary projection of an earnest wish.

Most theories concerning the lost tribes are simply silly, but one, British-Israel or Anglo-Israelitism, is somewhat pernicious in its effects and should be exposed as such. The fourteenth edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica includes the following definition of this theory: "Anglo-Israelitism, the contention that the English-speaking peoples are the descendants of the 'Ten Tribes' of Israel deported by Sargon of Assyria on the fall of Samaria in 721 B.C.E... Richard Brothers (1757-1824), the 'Nephew of the Almighty,' may be regarded as its first modern apostle." The dubious career of Brothers is further detailed in the article "Anglo-Israelitism" in the Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics, edited by James Hastings, published in 1908 and still the standard reference work in its field: "According to his account he was a Divinely appointed prophet. He described himself as a 'nephew of the Almighty,' and claimed descent from David. Among his prophecies were those of the imminent restoration of Israel to the Holy Land, and the elevation of himself as prince of the Hebrews and ruler of the world. Brothers was confined as a lunatic, but succeeded in obtaining many admirers..." Hastings next enumerated several good reasons why the theory is false.

British-Israel theorists, in the absence of sound evidence for their theory, have nonetheless persisted in demanding that it be accepted as a matter of faith. Surely this is a faith that recalls Tertullian's Credo quia absurdum because it defies all common sense. To see this, one need only ask how the Ten Lost Tribes could have wended their way from Israel all the way to the British Isles, a part of Europe that is far removed from Israel, without encountering the outraged resistance of people met along the way. How could they have subdued all those Celts and Teutons who were then occupying central and western Europe as their descendants do today?

The most recent generation of British-Israelites, who may have been troubled by this question in addition to seeking a wider potential audience, has come forth with a more extensive species of nonsense which they call "Identity." This fantasy equates Israel with all Europeans. The major objection to this revised theory, the fact that Celts and Teutons lived in Europe long before 721 B.C.E., is conveniently ignored.

The Celts not only lived in Europe around 1000 B.C.E., but also quite possibly had colonized portions of what is now New England. This is the thesis advanced bonkers in the name of Yahweh, why would you want to break your neck to distort history and WANT to be a descendant of such trash that even the morals of an alley cat would be put to shame? I would say that no sane, self-respecting White Man would.

We now come to the next cogent question: Why should we Creators, who are totally dedicated to the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race be particularly concerned about those misguided souls that believe in British-Israel? After all, they constitute only a minor percentage of the Christian population, perhaps less than 1 percent.

Well, there are good and sufficient reasons why we should be concerned. Whereas the overwhelming majority of White Christians do not believe they are the "real Israelites", the average run of Christians are the poorest of all prospects for building a White racial movement. For all practical purposes, the gung-ho Christian is unreachable for the present. The Identity crowd, on the other hand, are a different breed of cat. They crave Identity as a member of the White Race and are therefore the type of people the White Race needs to save itself. The big problem is they want to keep their hang-up with the Jewish spooks intact at the same time, a frustrating dilemma that splits their loyalty straight down the middle. We therefore have dual loyalists (as the SPOTLIGHT calls the Jews) that claim to be for the White Race, but also for the Jewish spook — an impossible incongruity. In so doing they confuse the hell out of those White racists that could effectively help wage the war for the survival and resurrection of the White Race.

Not only do they vastly confuse the issue, but these befuddled spook-chasers hate us rational White Loyalists much more passionately than they hate the Jews. Why? Because the Jews claim to believe in some kind of spook, even if they don't believe in Jesus Christ, so they can be forgiven. But we Creators — oy vey! That is a different story. We cut the very ground out from under them that supports their favorite hang-up — their personal Holy Cow. We demolish with sheer rationality all this intoxicating nonsense about spooks on high, spooks on low, spooks all around us, surveilling us, monitoring us, judging us, burning us in Hell. It makes them insanely furious that we expose and ridicule their cherished escape into insanity, and they would gladly burn us in Hell if they could, as witness the letter from Bishop Grant R. Powell, which we publish on a previous page. Is there anyone more vicious, more sadistic, more hateful than a born-again Christian? I think not.

I remember a meeting I attended in Kansas City in 1977. There was good old Gerda Koch expounding on how our country and our constitution were solidly built on the Christian Bible, an idea thoroughly repudiated by the Founding Fathers, who were determined to keep the church out of government. However, as she fixed her baleful eye on me, her main invective was directed against those miscreants who did not "believe" in the supernatural.

Then there is the Rev. Richard Butler, who with an engineering background should know better. As head of "Aryan Nations" he is pursuing the "Dual Loyalist" course of a true hypocrite, subservient to the Jew-concocted spooks and White racism, two completely conflicting and diametrically opposed concepts. But when it comes to those who would fight for and pursue a rational and well structured creed and program for White survival without dragging all this damn spooks clutter along with us, why, then all hell breaks loose, and there is no fury equal to that of a spook-chaser spurned.

"The Church of the Creator represents the only rational religion of which I know."

It is the position of the Church Of The Creator that the fight for survival against overwhelming odds is going to be fierce and drastic enough as it is, without weighing ourselves down with a lot of unnecessary clutter and tying our hands behind our back. (See "Self-imposed Handicap", Issue No. 6, EXPANDING CREATIVITY). Who needs all this confusion, clutter and bickering that the Christians themselves haven't been able to reconcile for the last 18 centuries. We sure as hell don't, and it must (and will!) be our continuing program to purge the White Man's mind of all this Jewish trash and rubbish.

At this point I would like to ask every White Man to ask his own conscience this categorical question: What is so great in having "deep and abiding faith" in some "belief" that is founded on neither fact nor logic? For example, could any thinking man have anything other than pity and contempt for a Hindu who insisted in believing cows are holy? Or a Christian, who "believes" in spooks in the sky that no one in all history has ever seen, heard, felt or smelt? Or an Identity fanatic, who will persist in claiming that the mythical "Ten Lost Tribes of Israel" populated Europe in short order and are our ancestors, when every piece of archaeological evidence, every written manuscript of history, categorically refutes such nonsense?

We Creators are sick and tired of putting up with such idiots who will indulge in such obvious inanities, and expect that we will "respect" their "beliefs".

Frankly, we have no intention of doing so, or even tolerating such nonsense anymore than we intend to respect a Hindu's "belief" that cows are holy. Facts are facts, evidence is evidence, and nonsense is nonsense. Pity the poor bastard who can't tell the difference. We will use our intelligence and our good judgment in the area of religion just as we will in any other. We will praise and commend good common sense, and we will ridicule and condemn any person, idea or movement that we find is based on nothing more than a nonsensical "belief".

But let us look further into the claims and character of the prestigious Rev. Richard Butler.

Recently a young man came all the way from the state of Washington to visit us at our World Headquarters. He tells his story in this issue starting on Page 1. He had been working with the Jews in Hollywood when he slowly became aware of what an odious and repugnant bunch they were, which, in turn, alerted his racial consciousness. Moving to Spokane, Washington, he became aware of the Aryan Nations group, who further aroused his racial loyalty. Someone gave him a copy of The White Man's Bible, which he read with considerable interest. When he asked the Rev. Butler about this book, the latter, avid Christian that he is, immediately responded with contempt, "Oh, Klassen, he's a Jew! He's an atheist! He's got to be a Jew!"

Now, Christians brag about their veracity, their kindness and charity. The Rev. Butler flagrantly violated all these tenets out of hand, without giving it a second thought, confirming what I have always contended: Never trust a Christian. Anyone who would lie to himself will repeatedly lie to others.

The facts are Klassen is a CREATOR, not an atheist, anymore than Butler is an infidel dog (according to the Moslem view.) Nor is Klassen a Jew, anymore than Butler is a black nigger. (Should Butler, in fact, be a nigger, I will retract that statement.) The Rev. Butler had every opportunity in the world to check my racial genealogy before disseminating such a derogatory lie. But he didn't bother. He evidently felt he had to protect his "Identity" hang-up at all costs, and lying about someone else evidently presented no problem. As I said before — anyone who will lie to himself....

There are those confused and well meaning individuals who will say — let's not bring up religion. Let's all just get together and fight the Jews. Maybe even the niggers and the Mexicans. Everyone's "religious faith" is a private matter and let's leave well enough alone.

Sounds good. But it doesn't work that way. Anyone's private "faith" is very much a concern in a life and death battle for the survival of our race. For instance, would you join hands with a White Man whose "private faith" was communism? Or if he belonged to the Black Muslims? Or if he was a dedicated Mooney? Or if he embraced Judaism? Or, like Jerry Falwell and his ilk, was an Israel Firster?

No, I would not. There is nothing more dangerous than having a schizophrenic with a split loyalty in your ranks and having to depend on him in time of crisis. And that is exactly what the Identity crowd is. They are hypocrites with a dual loyalty that is split between loyalty to the White Race and loyalty to Jewish Christianity, two diametrically opposed concepts that are fundamentally hostile to each other. The Billy Grahams, the Jerry Falwells and the rest of their ilk, at least we know where they stand, and we won't ever entertain any trust in them. But the Identity crowd is even more dangerous because they would deceive us by pretending they are on our side. But we Creators don't believe them. Comes der Crunch, and they will opt for the rapture, Jesus Christ, Yahweh and all the rest of that clutter. So we are their enemies, and they are ours. The sooner we realize this, the clearer will be our thinking, and the better off we will all be. I have no illusions about straightening out the confused clutter in the minds of such as the Rev. Richard Butler. Like concrete, their minds are all mixed up and hard set. He and his kind are a lost cause. However, it is the younger set like the young man that came to us, whose minds are still open and receptive, it is to these we appeal.

ed by Barry Fell, an Australian biologist at Harvard, in his recently published book America B.C. Fell, an expert in Celtic languages and archaeology, has deciphered numerous rock carvings, mostly writings in the old Celtic ogam alphabet, which suggest that America was what the Celts call Iargalon, the land of the setting sun.

Even if Fell's theory is not accepted, however, the fact remains that Europe was the homeland of the Celts and Teutons long before the ten tribes were carried off from Israel. The amount of archaeological evidence that supports this statement would suffice to bury all "Identity" enthusiasts up to their eyebrows. However, this would be a pointless effort for they are the same kind of people as those who told T. H. Huxley that Satan invented fossils to tempt us to believe that the earth existed before 4004 B.C.E., the year which the great Anglican Archbishop Ussher had established as the beginning of Creation. Such people simply refuse to accept the evidence of their senses; it is too boring or painful for them.

Another serious objection to the "Identity" foolishness also meets with silence. This is the fact that European languages have no linguistic affinity with Hebrew. British-Israel fanatics have argued that Saxon is derived from "Isaac's sons." Actually, Saxon is derived from the Old English seax, a knife or dagger, which is akin to the Old High German sahs, a rock or stone. It is also a fact that Anglo-Saxon, a dialect of Old West Germanic, is so closely related to Old High German that a student who reads Beowulf, oldest poem in English literature, may with little more instruction also read the Hildebrandslied, the oldest poem in German literature. Furthermore, not only all Teutonic languages, but also all other European languages together with Sanskrit may be traced back to one primal Indo-European or Aryan language. The Oxford English Dictionary gives an etymology going back to Aryan roots for thousands of words in English. However, no Indo-European tongues can be traced back to Hebrew or any other Semitic language. We people of European descent have a unique linguistic heritage and, consequently, a unique mentality, a fact that we may forget only at our peril!

British-Israel would be simply silly if it were not also pernicious. One sentence from the Britannica article cited before offers words of warning that should be sufficient for the wise: "The theory, still held by over 2,000,000 people, materially assisted the settlement of Jews in England in the seventeenth century." the Jews, many of them usurers of course, had first entered England immediately after the Norman conquest in 1066, and were then expelled by decree of Edward I in 1290. Their usury, graphically described in Carlyle's Past and Present as well as Macaulay's History of England, was the major factor in their expulsion. Not surprisingly, the period following their expulsion was one during which England prospered and became the world's foremost power. The Elizabethan age needs little mention, but one fact is particularly salient as evidence of the prosperity enjoyed during this Judenfrei period: The real wages of the English workers did not again attain the level they had reached in 1500 until 1900! This is noted by economist Robert Heilbroner in his The Making of Economic Society (New York: 1962, P. 30). British-Israel's contribution to the re-entry of the Jews was an effort on behalf of the British people's undoing.

Some of the worst excesses of the industrial revolution in Britain were not unrelated to the readmission of the Jews. Many of the leading capitalists of Manchester were Sephardic Jews. Among them was Ricardo, a theorist of capitalism who was praised by Marx because he described the economic process without reference to ethical considerations, i.e., "bourgeois ideology." Another Jewish political economist and capitalist of Manchester was Nassau Senior, and it may be significant that one British-Israel tract, British Israelites and the Ten Tribes (1885), was authored by one H. W. J. Senior.

While the Jews' Bill, legislation to grant civil rights to the Jews, met considerable opposition, philo-Semitic illusions were so cultivated in England that it was almost another century before the British became alert to the type of Jew that has been given a classic portrayal in the character of Fagin in Charles Dickens' Oliver Twist. And while the insights of Sir Richard Burton's The Jew, the Gypsy and El Islam contributed to an increasing knowledge toward the end of the nineteenth century, this work's salutary effect counted for little against the romanticized Zionism that was extolled in novels such as George Elliot's Daniel Deronda. In fact, the impact of British-Israel extends to the Balfour Declaration and modern-day Israel itself.

Some advocates of "Identity" argue that they do not aid Zionism, rather combat it because they differentiate between the "true"

Israelites, the supposedly European descendants of the ten tribes, and the Jews, descendants of Judah. The fact is, however, that there are fewer differences between Israelites and Judaeans than there are between Prussians and Bavarians, Scotchmen and Englishmen, or Romans and Sicilians. The division between the northern and southern kingdoms, Israel and Judah, meant no more than, for example, the present-day division between North Dakota and South Dakota. It is likely that not even followers of "Identity" really believe in this specious distinction.

Most advocates of British-Israel, including the Worldwide Church of God, do not distinguish between Israelites and Jews, and continually urge their followers, mostly Americans of British descent, to support Zionist Israel. In this regard, they differ little from other bird-brained Bible-bangers, such as Billy Hargis and Billy Graham, who also admonish their followers to support Israel, advocate the admission to the U. S. of millions of Asiatic "refugees," and do whatever else they can to undermine and ultimately destroy this nation.

Fundamentalists in general — and British-Israel is merely an outgrowth of fundamentalism — have had an unrealistic image of the Jew and have accepted as literal fact the fanciful history of the Jews presented in the Old Testament. This gullibility arises from at least two factors, one geographical and one historical.

Geographically considered, most British-Americans were the first numerous element of the American populace to separate itself from the Old World. In their new wilderness homes, bereft of European cultural influences, they often had only the Bible for reading matter. Naturally, the outlandish Old Testament narratives appealed to their imaginations, and they attempted to find analogues for them in their daily experiences. After the Puritans, for example, gave up on converting the Indians, they came to regard them as hopelessly heathen Canaanites who were to be slain and have their lands occupied. The New England Abolitionists, John Brown most notoriously, tended to identify themselves with the prophets of the Old Testament, a fancy that may partly account for the overnight success of Julia Ward Howe's "Battle-Hymn of the Republic."

Awakened by the influx of eastern European immigrants, a number of prominent British-Americans did, nonetheless, become alert to the reality that is Judah. Particularly noteworthy are the following: Hawthorn, U.S. Grant, Cements, James Russell

Lowell, Henry James, Henry Adams, John Jay Chapman, Edison, Ford, Madison Grant, Lothrop Stoddard, T. S. Elliot, Ezra Pound, and Ernest Hemingway.

Most British-Americans, especially the fundamentalists among them, remained, however, in the geographical and cultural backlands. Such Anglo-Saxons lost in a wilderness of ignorance should be the first objects of the missionary efforts of those who have become enlightened to the depredations of the two tribes which did not vanish with the Assyrians.

The magnitude of this task is only exceeded by its urgency.

We want more problem solvers, not more hand-wringers.

We say to them: dump all this Jewish Christianity and its accompanying garbage. Join with us in a rational hard-hitting White racial religion that is dedicated to the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race, and the White Race alone. It is well structured, it is clear, it is complete, it is comprehensive. It is specifically designed to overcome the treacherous Jewish network and again make the White Race the pride and epitome of Nature's Realm.

Can we do it? You damn right we can, and we will. We now have in our hands the blueprint and the tools to do it with. If we distribute and place in the hands of our White Racial Comrades as few as 10 million copies of our White Man's Bibles, not only the battle, but also the whole war will be won, once and for all. And believe me, it will be the biggest bargain the White Race ever bought for itself. We spend more in one day than the 10 million Bibles would cost on subsidizing the free-loading niggers in our midst, not to mention Israel, the Jews and all the other parasites on a global scale.

Once the CREATIVITY idea has permeated the White Man's mind, the battle will be over for all time. We will then be able to save our ecology, save our land, save our planet and get on with the long term job of up-breeding and advancement of our precious race.

We have ample means with which to do the job — so let's get with it! (Read again Issue No. 9, "We are Not Helpless," in EXPANDING CREATIVITY.)

THE THREE BASIC BOOKS OF CREATIVITY

NATURE'S ETERNAL RELIGION

508 Pages, 49 Chapters

by Ben Klassen, P. M.
Published in 1973

This book for the first time in history sets forth the fundamentals of a basic RACIAL RELIGION for the Survival, Expansion and Advancement of the White Race. It is based on the Eternal Laws of Nature, the Experience of History, Logic and Common Sense.

It exposes the whole panorama of the dastardly worldwide Jewish conspiracy, aimed at the genocide and extermination of the White Race. It lists the five Jewish books that have had devastating influence on the thinking and course of the White Man's history.

Best of all, it not only sounds the alarm, but blueprints a specific plan and program of how to extricate the White Race from its present predicament. It presents a EUGENICS program for the future of the White Race to uplift it to the glorious heights of the Superman and beyond.

THE WHITE MAN'S BIBLE

451 Pages, 73 Chapters

by Ben Klassen, P. M.
Published in 1981

This book expands and extends the Creed and Program of CREATIVITY and includes the following:

*Goals for the World of the Future from the White Man's Point of view.

*Nine chapters on Salubrious Living - how to regain superhealth and keep it.

*Restoring the White Man's control over his own destiny - in religion, government, education and culture.

*How to stop the racial pollution of America and in fact, reverse the process.

*This book establishes a Powerful Religious Creed and Program for the Survival, Expansion and Advancement of the White Race.

*It proclaims our FOUR DIMENSIONAL PROGRAM.

*It sums up the Total Program, the Final Solution and the Ultimate Creed based on the Eternal Laws of Nature.

SALUBRIOUS LIVING

244 Pages, 22 Chapters

Written by Arnold DeVries with introduction and the last chapter concerning, "Eugenics and Survival of the White Race,"

by Ben Klassen, P. M.
Published in 1982

The phrase and the idea, "Salubrious Living", was introduced in The White Man's Bible. This third "Bible" of our Trilogy rounds off the basic creed of "A Sound Mind, in a Sound Body, in a Sound Society, in a Sound Environment." That is the heart of CREATIVITY.

A Friendly Word from Your Editor

In publishing this paper we have a multitude of purposes in mind, but there are two that predominate:

1. To inform and encourage our existing members and supporters to build the White Racial movement known as CREATIVITY, and,
2. To act as an effective flyer for mass distribution to our White Racial Comrades who have never heard of us before.

Of these two, we are placing major emphasis on the second objective. This paper is designed basically for the purpose of alerting and recruiting new members to our Cause. Whereas, not every White Racial Comrade may at present be receptive to our Cause, nevertheless there are millions out there who are receptive, who are fervently looking for a solution for which we have the answer - the real answer. There are millions out there who have never heard of CREATIVITY or of The WHITE MAN'S BIBLE or any of our other publications. It is our beholden duty to reach those millions and the best way to do so is to distribute copies of RACIAL LOYALTY. It is one of the most constructive actions you can take.

Order 100 copies of either this issue, or any combination of issues. Distribute them to your friends, your relatives or anyone who is inclined to be receptive. Distribute them to places such as, laundromats, airports, colleges, shopping centers etc. You'll be doing yourself and your White Racial Comrades the biggest favor of a lifetime.

Do it now! Order 100 copies for $15.00 or 50 copies for only $8.50.

Remember, the future of the White Race now hangs by a thread. If you do not take action, who will? A mere 10 million White Man's Bibles in the hands of our White Racial Comrades would see us well on the road to victory, which is an extremely small price to pay in comparison to the billions of dollars the Jews loot from us each year. We have to get these first 10 million Bibles out, and the paper which you now hold in your hand is the most effective vehicle with which to do the job. We can do it. Your sacrifice and dedication are the keys to victory. Become a mini-distribution center for our material, including RACIAL LOYALTY.

WARNING: We admonish all our supporters to NEVER place any material in U. S. Mail boxes. To do so is a Federal Offense.

an astounding array of facts and figures that has the Jews completely backtracked and is now the spearhead for the mightiest White Racial Movement that the world has ever known.

In my eagerness, I showed The White Man's Bible to the Rev. Butler. Immediately he frowned. "Oh, that Klassen! He's a Jew! He's an atheist! He's got to be a Jew!"

I was somewhat disturbed, but I was also fascinated by the cogent message he had to deliver. It made so much more sense than the spooks in the sky saving us. There was a contradiction here somewhere. I decided to check it out for myself. I hitch-hiked all the way across the country to Otto, N. C. and met with the Pontifex. I stayed there for 4 months, to learn more, at the same time observing, learning and helping in the work that needed to be done.

It was while taking the 4 month sojourn at the Church of the Creator's main headquarters that I was able to learn my religion better. Four months of religious study does not "a pontifex produce," but I left with enough prolific knowledge to give rise and origin to the family's newest addition, the Spokane Church of the Creator, while working with the Pontifex and the Hasta Primus I was able to reach a valuable conclusion based on cognition. It is as follows: BEN KLASSEN IS DEFINITELY NOT A JEW AS SOME PEOPLE HAVE ACCUSED HIM OF BEING. Matter-of-fact, and I direct this anecdote to Pastor Butler of Aryan Nations, because you sir, unrightfully accused an innocent man of being a despicable enemy of the White Race. Believe me, I have a second sense when it comes to being around or next to an imperious Jew, and Ben Klassen is not one.

February will be my first anniversary in joining the White Racist movement. I am very optimistic about my future here in Spokane as a devout Reverend of the Church of the Creator. Spokane's Church of the Creator is merely an infant and will grow through many developments in 1986. Some of its goals are to proselytize as many desirable White Racial Comrades as possible. We are not looking for endless arguments with Christian spook-chasers and neither are we looking for any trouble with the Aryan Nations Folk. Our goals at the Spokane Church of the Creator are to disseminate literature throughout the Inland Empire and to voice our viewpoints over radio and public television. Whether we meet those goals will be determined by the effort and hard work we are willing to endure throughout the coming year. Spokane's Church of the Creator is comprised of the finest of the White Race, those who are willing to walk the intrepid path towards an ultimate victory and the brightest of futures for the White Race. We will exercise our right to religious freedom to the ends of the earth. We will stand up proud and happy to be members of Nature's Finest. If met with any resistance we will stick to our creed tenaciously (as the Jews do) and we will call on all members of the Church of the Creator to aid us in our time of sorrow. We will emerge victorious because united and polarized the White Race is the strongest and most indomitable race in the world. WE WILL PREVAIL.

the White Race on a global scale. We are dedicated to this goal, not because it is easy, but because it must be done, and we have the creed and program with which to achieve it, but only with your help and zeal.

It is a tall order. But it is that, or nothing. In this respect we emulate the fearless philosophy of the indomitable Texas Rangers of the 19th century, "Know you're right and just keep coming." We vow to "keep coming" until we have either achieved total victory, or until we are dead. We know we are right.

In pursuing this lofty and urgent goal, and in hastening the day of victory, we appeal to all White Racial Comrades to submerge and sublimate your own insignificant and fleeting hubris to the major goal — the survival, expansion and advancement of your race. We have now forged the tools and weapons to do the job, and they are formidable. We are not helpless (Read again EXPANDING CREATIVITY in Issue No. 6 "The Self-imposed Handicap" and Issue No. 9 "We are not Helpless"). But fragmented and divided, we are not only helpless, we are doomed.

Whether we like it or not, the Jews have us enmeshed in a highly dangerous and deadly game, in which there can be only total victory, either for their side or ours. We are not playing ping-pong, nor are we playing marbles. Nature's basic laws are now coming into full play on a massive scale, and it is now an issue of whether the White Race will be murdered (remember Dresden!) or whether we demolish the Jewish monster and survive. This issue will be resolved one way or another, in the lifetime of many of those living today, and believe me, there will be no compromise.

I want to reiterate the initial premise stated in the beginning of this article, namely, we have the means to do it now. Standing in the way, mainly, is the hubris of many of the leaders of the numerous small splinter groups, who, because it is not THEIR brain child, would rather fight Creativity than spread the word, not realistically thinking of the consequences that will ensue if we don't settle upon one major movement and consolidate. These shortsighted individuals would indeed cut off their nose to spite their face.

In so saying, I am sure that there are many who will take the easy alibi and accuse me of a hubris of my own, therefore the problem is answered and by-passed.

No, my friend, it is neither answered nor by-passed. The overwhelming problems remain — stark and real, urgent and overwhelming. If we don't get our act together, and soon, it will be all over, and the White Race will be finished. That includes you and any stubborn little hubris you may nurture. It includes your immediate family, your relatives, your race and your civilization. This will be a world overrun with screaming, clawing, starving mud peoples, billions of them. It will be a hell-hole of the worst kind, one in which the White Race cannot survive, or in which it would even want to live.

So this is hardly a silly little game of "who's got the hubris?" If you want to play a cute little trick on personalities and turn tables on me, go ahead, indulge yourself. I couldn't care less. If it makes you feel any better, be my guest. I am neither concerned about my hubris, or the lack of it. Frankly, I never wanted to be in the public eye, and I don't care to be now. Christ knows I have examined every possible organization which I hoped might be able to help do the job and solve the problem. I was a member of the John Birch Society, of the Citizens Council, of the Republican Party, the Presbyterian church, I even formed my own Nationalist White Party. When I came to the conclusion that none of these were even remotely fitted to do the job, I sought ways and means that would be meaningful and cogent, and Creativity was the answer.

Having finally found the answer, we are determined to do whatever it takes to get the job done — only total victory will suffice. Like the Texas Rangers, we will push on, come hell or high water. I will be only too happy to relinquish the leadership and pass it on to younger, more capable hands, and fade into the mists. In fact, I have been searching for such an outstanding promoter for years and we will find him. We have several excellent young prospects right now. I can hardly wait to go into retirement, write a few more books, (I have six in mind right now) and let younger, more capable, more energetic hands carry the torch and reap the glory, if any.

It is hard to understand the intransigence of some of our racial leaders who secretly take the position "If I didn't think of it myself, I would rather torpedo it than give someone else the credit." Why anyone should take this self-defeating stance is neither rational nor constructive. After all, 200,000 Christian preachers in America who are also White, do not take such an absurd position. They don't claim to have invented Christianity nor written the Christian Bible, yet they have no reservations in breaking their necks to spread an idea and a book that they had no hand in either inventing or writing. (Actually, the Jews planted the whole mess.) So why should a White racial leader be so obtuse and irrational about helping promote an idea that will save his race from extinction?

So it is not a personal issue. Not with me, nor is it with you. Indeed, it is not a matter of personalities. It's not a matter of nit-picking trivialities. It is a matter of life and death. At stake is your life, your future, that of your family, your country, your race, and even more important, your future progeny.

What can you do? If you are not in the racial movement as yet, join with us, become a member of the Church of the Creator. If you are already in a racial group, join with us, and persuade your leader to convert to a C.O.T.C. group. If you are a leader of such a group, sublimate your hubris and form a C.O.T.C. group. Become an ordained minister of our church. Stop fighting with slingshots when you are being offered the best machine guns available to use as your weapons. Also, you must remember no program, no creed, no matter how dynamic, is self-implementing. We need good people like you to get behind the movement and give it muscle — give it all you've got.

Remember, we are not playing marbles. This is a deadly game. There is no substitute for victory and you will have little hubris to crow about if you end up a slave, your face down in the mud with a Jewish jackboot pressing down on the nape of your neck.

Dis-United America

A Sloppail in Ferment

By Rex Tiro

The reader of this article will find it difficult to believe that a major city in the U. S. has been taken over. It is San Antonio, Texas, and the Mexicans have the Whites heavily outnumbered. I have just returned from Texas where I was told by reliable sources that the ninth largest city in America is now dominated by a mongrelized race of brown faces.

Ironically, it is San Antonio where our fearless White heroes fought the famous Battle of the Alamo to keep Texas from falling into Mexican hands. The man now heading the power-group of brawling Mexicans is Mexican Henry Cisneros, Mayor of San Antonio.

Heavy drinkers that they are, Mexicans, with their anti-social behavior, engage in street crimes, and cram the prisons. Alcohol abuse is accentuated by the presence of Coors Beer and their slogans, "The Decade of the Hispanics" to sell their product to these heavy-drinking, miscegenated, brainless breeders of the unwanted.

Here in the city of San Diego, non-Whites are in the majority in our public schools, and crime is on the rise in spite of what our local Jew Police Chief says. In Los Angeles, school integration and busing quickly changed the color of Los Angeles. Fifteen years ago Los Angeles schools were 70 percent White. Today, they are only 28 percent White with Mexicans predominant at 42 percent and blacks at 24 percent. By the year 1990 Los Angeles will be only 14 percent White. The Mexicans are actually outbreeding both Whites and blacks. Los Angeles' black mayor, Tom Bradley, wants to hurry up and become governor of California before the Mexicans who are hostile to White and black alike, become the majority.

There are other take-overs by non-Whites by browning numbers. The Japanese have taken over Gardena, California. The Chinese, Monterey Park, California. Vietnamese have practically taken over Garden Grove, the city of the famous Crystal Cathedral, a monument to waste. This is almost surrounded by the mud races. There is warfare between racial groups — they are hostile to one another. Each is willing to use violence to establish their authority by sheer numbers. It would be wonderful if they destroyed each other; it would save the Whites a lot of trouble.

Recently on the six o'clock news it was reported that an unmarried, illegal Mexican woman has eight children, all born in the U. S. Authorities aren't sure what to do about her case. Rubbish!

The Rand Corporation released a report: "Current and Future Effects of Mexican Immigration" saying that "Mexican immigration does not currently pose a crisis." The INS, Immigration and Naturalization Service in San Diego says, "Illegal aliens are definitely a drain on public services ... and they do apply for these services." Nationwide these unwanted Mexicans are receiving as much as 9 billion in benefits. That's money out of the White taxpayer's pocket.

DANGER OF MUD RACES

The fact is uncontestable that blacks present dire economic, genetic, political and religious danger in this country. Every White American should be made aware of this cancerous growth creeping everywhere. But there is a more rapidly emerging political clout on the horizon. It is the largest and the most powerful element — the Mexican breeding machine. Illegal aliens have no education, no skills, no money, and no conscience, but they have a hell of a lot of sex power and disease. What they need

Rights are something that are not granted, but taken by those who are capable. Nature has endowed us with the means to become the natural heirs to Planet Earth. (W) they'll take from the Whites, with the help of J. O. G. It is only a matter of a little more time. The Catholic Church is using them for political power. "When there's enough of them," says the Church, "we'll take over in this country."

Mexicans, like lower animals, outbreed blacks and Whites. They have families of about 8 or 9 children while the blacks average about 5 or 6 and the Whites have less than two. The White man is now below "population zero."

While I was in San Antonio, Texas, a Mexican leader admitted to me that he had nine children and that his neighbor had eight. "We are not Whites," he said, "and we're getting what we want." The message was clear to me — you have to be brown to get on special government welfare programs.

When one looks at our stupidly run government, one sees 180 federal agencies that transfer money from producers to non-producers like blacks and browns, and that expends something like 350 billion annually, for none of which it has the slightest authority in the Constitution. Is it any wonder that Ben Klassen condemns the Constitution as a worthless piece of paper?

Let no one believe for a moment this welfare has been instituted out of sheer generosity or sweet charity — quite the contrary. The real purpose is to gain control and perpetuate the bureaucracy in office and power. And that's exactly what the churches want. Government steals billions from hard working Whites to support and encourage the births of illegitimate children, who will one day soon, vote for more handouts.

The danger to America is not the USSR. It is our unguarded border between the U. S. and Mexico. With a population of some 80 million and the highest birth rate in the world, Mexico will exceed 120 million by the year 2000. Mexico City has the largest slum in the world, and this with 40 percent unemployment. We can see the dangerous hordes crossing the border by some two million each year. In order to remedy the situation, we will either have to put the army on duty along the 2000 mile border or build a Berlin Wall to save us from the Hispanic invasion.

CONCLUSION

The White American civilization cannot be saved unless something drastic is done, and done soon. There is no time to lose. It is NOW or NEVER. The White Man must regain control of his destiny. We must STRIKE BACK! The most effective thing a White individual can do to strike back and do his duty is to join the Church of the Creator.

To the millions of vacillating White Christians, I say this: forget the spook-in-the-sky foolishness and take a new religion based on Nature, History, Science, and Common Sense. It is my religion. I love it and I work very hard at it in spite of my advanced age. The best reason I can think of for accepting a religion based on Nature is that it is all right here on earth, right under your nose. It is the White Man's true religion. (W)

Supremacy in 1974. That was all changed. Anywhere that the word White was mentioned it was cemented over and the plaque was replaced with one that stated in effect that the City of New Orleans will not permit any reference to the word White in connection with the Confederate monument. There were trees planted around it so as to make it difficult for tourists to see the monument altogether.

While all of this happened, the Jew-loving Christians just sat by and let it go on.

Now Orleans is a Jew infested city, where race-mixing is in abundance. Anywhere in the United States where there is race-consciousness, all references to the great achievements of the White Man have been done away with. This is a perfect example of how this sick government hates the White Race and White Culture. If they have their way they will turn our cities into one big shopping center.

The National Socialists saw the same thing happening in Europe and they didn't just talk about it, they took direct action. Is it not time we did the same?

And last but not least, let's remember our racial kinsmen of the Order and support them. They are P.O.W.'s sitting in Z.O.G.'s jails. If any of you out there would like to write them, write me and I'll give you their addresses. LONG LIVE THE ORDER!

Help Promote the School for Gifted Boys

It is absolutely essential to the survival of the White Race that we build an elite Leadership core. What better way than to educate, enlighten and help mold the character of our finest at an early age. By arousing their racial instincts, presenting the racial problem clearly and graphically and showing them the future role they can play in the game of survival, we are getting to the heart of the problem.

Help bring this about. Recruit young boys between ages 10 to 18 to come to Kamp Klassen this summer, for orientation in white Racial values, and also two weeks of healthy fun and games.
