Tom and Adam were toe to toe, Tom grabbed a knife and slashed his arm repeatedly. I told Adam to let us leave, we got in the car, he started it, put it in reverse, looked in his side mirror and seen my brother (Tom) lying behind the car. He put it in park, shut it off while I got out to see what was going on.

Tom was unresponsive, I tried to get a reaction, he gulped in air twice, then no more. I was shaking him, slapping his face trying to get a response. He gave none. I begged him to say something, to breathe but got nothing. Adam at no time reversed the car or moved it in anyway. He did not run over Tom.
