LMFAO.. Krudd's a fag and there's no such thing as a stolen generation.. Governments were indeed trying to help out the Abo kids by taking them away from abusive homes.
As usual Labor's just being a populist party without doing any actual research into what really happened..

strop001 (20 hours ago)

Ahh so what you are saying is they should replace the term " STOLEN GENERATION " with the term " RESCUED GENERATION "

PhoeniX726 (19 hours ago)

that, or have no beat up at all.. i don't get why aboriginals get so much media attention because of this, yet thousands of kids have to "suffer" the same thing today.

I dont get it either! it dont matter black or white.I wasnt there I dont know what really happened,but in 40 years the kids from junkies and the like(black white or brindle) who were removed from their homes can cry STOLEN GENERATION and expect an apology...

Scary thing is, due to your ability to put together and post this diatribe you probably aren't over forty. But your sentiments, and lack of any social understanding is so dated you no doubt think slavery was a pretty cool system. If someone attacked your home, children or even pets, you'd be screaming for justice. The traditional land owners of this country (we are so lucky to inhibit) deserve a similar justice and more. You are a little, little man. Now go away!

you really think your so great becuse your white? how about you take a look back in history and see how great 'white' people really are, and you'll see that whites are the most uncivilized and barbaric of them all, its interesting to see that picking on people who are batterd and bruised helps you sleep at night, does it make you feel big and important?

MyHuskyPictures (15 hours ago)

Reply

Im white and i have never felt big about something i wasn't involved in. Each person is diffrent not all white people have the same opinion. Actually ALL people have thier own opinion and "WHITE PEOPLE" is a very broad term. Try to be more specific them people might understand your point of view.
and by the way not ALL Aborigines are still upset about what happened. Just think about it even if its only for a second!

Oh gosh this is very rude.

You can't assume all Indigenous Anstralian's are the same.. as in, they won't all hold out their hands for money, they don't all smell, etc.

They do get more benefits than the White Australians, this is true. However, their standard of living in and out of communities is significantly lower than, say, an average white person living in the suburbs of Melbourne.

And if the aborgines have better thins to do then why did you bother spending your time posting this comment? And what do you mean by better things? Last time i checked it was the Welfare cheques that taxes go to because you spend all your time abusing people you don't even know when you could be out there working.

MyHuskyPictures (15 hours ago)

I Agree im sure the people that can make the problem better go through Youtube comments. And yes you are supporting the typical Aboriginal Stereotype by doing this.
Abusing the White community WON'T EVER MAKE IT BETTER. YOU MIGHT HAVE MORE RIGHTS BUT YOU DON'T HAVE RACIAL IMMUNITY. Same with all other NON-Whites you still have to show some respect even if you have none for us.

purplemuffinlicker (18 hours ago)

Reply

+1

Haha this is funny!
People should lighten up!
Sure we can't say every aboriginal is the same, but you have to admit, they don't do alot to prove us wrong.
If they want to be equal so bad, stop asking for compensation. What happened is in the past now, lets all move on!

fromlittlenthings (18 hours ago)

Reply

+1

Do a bit of research on the events that caused Indigenous Australians so much damage. Until then perhaps others will join me in saying sorry on your behalf, for your insensitive and appallingly ignorant position, that there are still people like you, we're sorry.

Eratic1488 (18 hours ago)

Reply

Youngkooribrother and ilk, nice insults and attacks, perhaps an intelligent rebuttal would be more appropriate.

The simple point of this video is that we have nothing to be sorry for as nothing we did to you worsened your conditions. If the Aboriginal people would behave in a manner that would be beneficial to their own race, we'd have no reason to disrespect you.

White people attempted to help you and we failed miserably. Work for your living or wither on the vine, simple!

Feel free to go back living the way of your ancestors, molesting children and spearing each other. The point is, you may hate us so much, you may not want to be like us, but to live the way you currently do... You bet you need us.

We've been enslaved, raided and persecuted for millenia, yet still, 99% of Legal custodians? Yes, because they proved quite simply they aren't the rightful custodians. Let those who wish to live fight, and those who do not wish to fight in this world of eternal struggle, do not deserve to live.

The Aborigines made it quite obvious they were unable to defend their land or way of life, they surrendered their culture with barely a fight and even today, despite being given hand out after hand out, they can't manage to put up any protest without white Liberal support.

Your country NEEDS to develop a reputation for racism. At the moment it has a reputation of multiculturalism and anti-white racism. Another point; the education level you are bragging about is an established White institution, shouldn't you be boycotting it or something? I suggest you read some of the works of Elijah Muhammad, the founder of the Nation of Islam.

Involuntary re-education? A bit like involuntarily taking babies from abusive parents? Are you a neo-Communist?

Is it my fault the Representative of Aboriginality on this comment board cannot spell a single word correctly? If it is, I am most surely SORRY for his incapacity to make use of a written language. Perhaps I should be sent to Nauru and re-educated so I can be as equally worthless as most of the Australian Aboriginal population, after all, equality is our goal?

I don't quite understand the demand for an apology for something what happened before our generation was even born.

It's exactly the same as someones father murdering someone and his child being charged for the crime.

Aboriginals recieve FREE education, FREE housing and money from the government.

It's taking initiative to better yourself with education. Aboriginals demand jobs but you can't get a job without an education (May I stress again, what they get for FREE)

It's time to move on.

This is seriously one of the funniest arguements displayed via comments on youtube i've ever witnessed. Who needs the video geez the comments from the "Aboriginal representetives" is funny enough.

Heres a tip if you would like to strengthen your side of the arguement you should talk in a more civilised manner as you have clearly stated that you have been educated sufficiently, all you are doing is fueling the stereotypical view of your race.

Also following your logic that this is the "Aboriginals land" as they were here
"First" is quite flawed native inhabitants such as flora and fauna were in Australia first so following your logic they should own the country?

You might want to get a reality check what was maybe once YOURS has now been taken and shared, Australia is a multicultural country it is OUR land not YOUR land.

It is now the 21st century so if you want to own a piece of your own Australia go get a job and work for it.

Wondered if you would make the parallel. Perhaps if you could consider more deeply the events that Indigenous Australia has involuntarily endured, you might not be so hateful and condescending on this forum. As to the spelling critique, it's just not relevant nor does it provide reason for vitriole. Your comments continue to evidence a lack of understanding of the human psyche and the impact of generations of discrimination and oppression.

Not, just saying that they should accept their situation and make the best of it they should be happy and lucky that they are now placed in a country which has EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES and therefore should just make the best of it.

e.g Complete their education and attain a decent status in the community. They've been presented the opporunitiy so its their choice now whether to take it or not, evidently whether it be a minority or the majority of them the "Media" unknowingly tells us they aren't.

okay lets take a look at the lives of an aboriginal. their land was first invaded, then millions of them were tortured, made into slave labour, killed, raped and seperated and after when the colonisers realised they couldn't exterminate them they took their children away and tried to change their identity, then after they realised it was wrong they gave them back. After all of this terrible doing without even a sorry people just expected them to get over it and participate in a society where...
