Aboriginals are the niggers of Australia. They are the most primitive animals on the planet.

They are typically called coons, boongs, abos or black cunts by every Australian. The proper name for a young aboriginal is Lake Angel.

History of Aboriginals

One of many possible theories is that 50,000 years ago, some Chinks, led by King Mabo migrated across to Australia and formed a race. These people lived off the land, engaged in inter-tribal war and lived in large families. Not much has changed.

At least 100 years ago, English discoverers colonized Australia with the aim of turning into the world's most hostile and desolate prison and forced labor camp. Encountering pale-skinned people for the first time, the Aboriginals (in their poorly charred form) welcomed the newcomers to the beaches. The English greeted them with muskets, bayonets, smallpox and alcohol.

After the misunderstanding of killing most of the Aborigines was cleared up, the British achieved a mutually agreeable compromise of getting the remaining Aborigines drunk, moving them all into tiny, remote communities, and stealing their children to be raised in good households.

Later, Aborigines were slaughtered by the thousands to provide specimens of 'missing links' for museums in Europe and America. The Australian National Museum once classified aborigines as 'Australian animals' and gave instructions on plugging up the bullet holes once the specimen had been shot for science.

Abo technological "advancements"

The Australian indigenous people are believed to have populated the country for over 50 thousand years, making them one of the oldest "civilizations" on Earth, pre-dating ancient Greeks, Mayans and Egyptians. So in all this time on Earth before everyone else, you would have expected them to be some kind of super-advanced, super-intelligent race. Below is a complete list of 50,000 years of all Aboriginal accomplishments and contributions to humanity:

- A long stick. (spear)
- A curved stick. (boomerang)
- A hollow stick. (digeridoo)

Comparison

As a comparison, here are some interesting facts, comparing Abos to Chinks.

- In 9 BC, China invented gunpowder
- In 5 BC, the Chinese invent the kite
- In 4 AD, Chinese scientists make a fully working compass, and
- In 1788 AD, when the British came to Australia, after 50,000 years of life, the damn Abos still hadn't invented the fucking wheel, and yet they want us to respect their culture and way of life.

Nunga Nunga Says sorry to the whites of Australia.?? Or is this just Bullshit too?

Abo Hobbies

Hobbies of the Abo's tend to include:

Drinking petrol out of jerry cans

- raping their young
- Drinking grog to contact the spirits.
- waiting for the fortnightly dole payment to go buy more drugs and booze
- teaching their children how to also be the unwiped arseholes of society like the parents
- drinking beer with the bottle still in the paper bag while sitting in highway median strips
- complaining about how white people stole their land 200 years ago, like they were going to do anything else but search for "bush tucker" (aboriginal food) on it.
- Celebrating Sorry Day, A time when all White Australians are legally obligated to apologize to the Aborigines for something they never did.
- [Children only] Being confused on father's day
- Sniffing bug spray on Queensland Rail on their way to Beenleigh Centerlink.

Aboriginal Quotes

- "Put DAT MONEY in mah hand NOW!"- abo riding teh bus.
- "Wombat tastes like shit!" - drunk abo.
- "Goanna is my favourite" - masterchef abo.
- "Gib'id dat der" - abo talking about sex, or fighting (both are the same concepts in abo culture)
- "Godda gedda woobla" - abo going shopping for food

Aboriginal Culture

The only two musical instruments used in Aboriginal music are sticks and the didgeridoo. Whereas civilized societies produced instruments of made of metals and complicated tubing, the Abos produced the Log, v.2. This large bong-like contraption emits a low groaning sound, much akin to what bagpipes would sound like on methadone. They also have heaps of stories of encounters with kangaroos (they were either drunk or sniffing a high amount of petrol at the time) that they say were like the size of a tree and encountered the great hairy man or the yowie. The didgeridoo was originally invented to mask the sound of their young screaming as the tribal elders ritually raped them and circumcised them with hot stones.

An aboriginal rave is called a corroboree, which usually involves a circle of elders sitting around a burning pyre of state-provided bedding and furniture, while younger Aboriginals paint themselves in automotive paint and huff gasoline fumes before dancing in a crazed fashion typically associated with Downs Syndrome or Cerebral Palsy.

Abo Youth

While Abo's are famous for their blowing of Digeredoos, a big part of Aboriginal youth culture is acting like a gangster. Even though they live in Australia, young Abo's try to replicate the culture of young African Americans, often engaging in singing rap music, drinking, gangbanging, drinking, rape, drinking, incest and other forms of Niggerdom. They also very often partake in binge drinking, sometimes having up to three times the fatal limit of alcohol. While this amount would normally be assumed to be enough to kill 3 people, Abo's have a special ability to constantly be hammered, but never die.

Abo Youth behaviour can be observed in the following video.

This is where your tax dollars are ending up.

Aboriginal News

Child Rape

In July 2007, The Australian Government sent federal police and the Army into Aboriginal communities to seize control after a recent report came to the shocking and unexpected conclusion that Aboriginals were getting drunk and raping their young.

The communities, mostly focused around the Northern Territory (see: Middle of Fucking Nowhere) are torn between receiving free health and infrastructure, and having their precious beer, drugs and loli taken away from them.

The report was titled "Little Children Are Sacred", which is widely believed to be a typographical error, the correct title being "Little Children Are Scared.". Which, let's face it, you would be too if a fat bearded negroid man with spraypaint on his breath was lying on top of you like some sort of hairy, stinking leviathan.

A news report on child sexual abuse and the abuse of petrol in Aboriginal Communities.

The Aboriginal Flag

The Aboriginal flag is composed of horizontal black on red bars, with a yellow circle in the center. It shows their proud German heritage.

Colours

- The black represents the niggerness of the Abos skin.
- The red represents the blood spilled when the White people came and fixed Australia.
- The yellow blob in the middle is the big puddle of piss left by all white Australians, who love nothing more than to piss on this piece of shit flag.

New Design

Proposed new design for Abo Flag. This new rendition features a symbol of greater importance than the sun to Abos, Centrelink is where all Abos get their booze money. Rather than getting jobs and working for money like normal people, they expect to receive unlimited Government handouts from the the same Government which they claim to despise. Along with their traditional spirit beliefs such as The Rainbow Serpent, Abos have recently crowned Centrelink as a God, worshiping it for its generous nature and for providing Abos with some sort of income. The only difference between other religious beliefs and Centrelink is that Centrelink actually exists.

Aborigines and Commerce

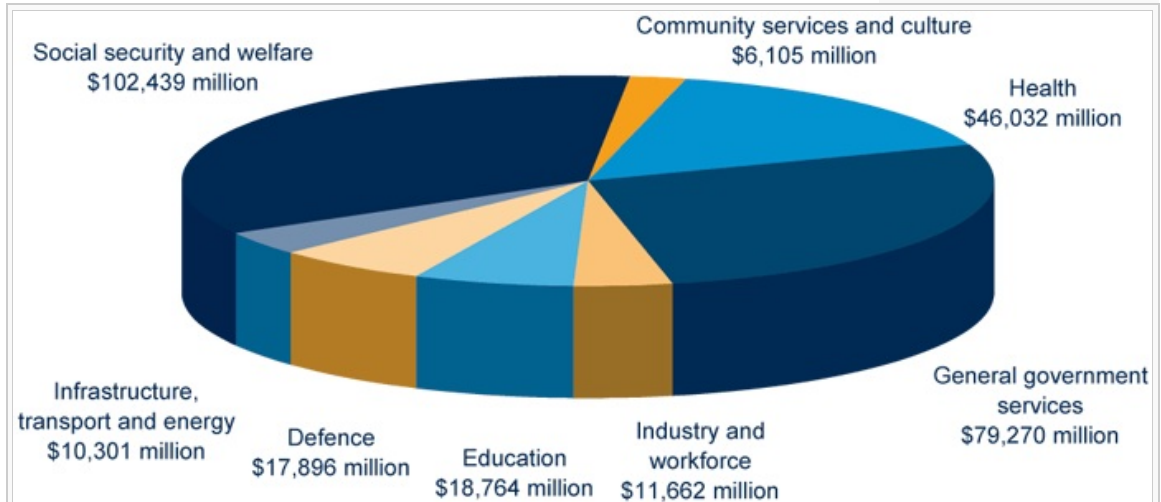

Aboriginals represent approximately 80% of the total ~~sales~~ shoplifting of Winfield Blue cigarettes in Australia. The other 20% are from residents of Werribee.

The 2005 Australian Census gave an overall unemployment rate for proper Australian citizens of 2.7%, an improvement since the 2001 census' report of 102.7%. The Australian Beareau of Statistics also gathered data on Abos just to make them feel special, in this case the rate of employment was a mere xx3q%, with the majority of Abos living off welfare.

Petrol

Aboriginals love sniffing petrol. This is done by simply sniffing it directly from the can or someones fuel tank. A common occurrence in Australian life is waking up to find a dead petrol sniffer right next to your car. This is usually exclaimed by the Australian yelling "Crikey, there's a dead petrol sniffer!" No one knows why Abos sniff petrol, some speculate that they believe it holds some spiritual significance, other beliefs include they use it just to get high. Most Abo's engage in what has become somewhat of a tradition once a fortnight (more often if the welfare money is not blown on other staples such as methylated spirits, drugs or fags). After cashing their cheque they treat themselves to some premium unleaded, high-octane petrol.

"Vortex" is a favorite. It makes a change from the 95 octane standard unleaded. The Australian government in another piece of groundbreaking piece of harm-minimization have phased out leaded petrol which contained tetra-ethyl lead. Scientific studies have indicated that this anti-knocking petrol additive can cause cognitive disturbances. Interestingly when the newer unleaded petrol was introduced a large number of Abo's complained to major petrol refineries that it was somehow lacking in it's hydrocarbon CNS kick. Researchers subsequently discovered in double blind studies that the tetra-ethyl lead was having a synergistic effect with the hydrocarbons. Not wanting to totally disenfranchise their indigenous brethren, the Government has now augmented their needle-exchange program with the tetra-ethyl lead bottle exchange program. 7 out of 10 Abo's now cannot tell the difference between new unleaded with the additive and the old unleaded. The remaining 3 Abo's are too off-their-face to really care.

Quick instruction for petrol.

Government Petrol Initiative

Late in October 2008, the Australian Government began to respond to the serious issue of Abo's sniffing petrol. One method they will shortly employ is the production of fumeless petrol. This new petrol is impossible to get high off by smelling it and has the aim of stopping petrol sniffing in Aboriginal communities. However, the more likely result is that instead of giving up the petrol altogether, they will stop sniffing it, and start drinking it.

- <http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/world/asia-pacific/7679278.stm> - Oh Shit!, It's on the rise

They were so happy, and we RUINED it!

Every single Australian child has had the miracle of the dreamtime rammed down their throat at school from an early age. Apparently abos were happy squatting naked in their own filth for thousands of years. So why then does the modern aboriginal complain about his difficult and unfulfilling life of squatting naked in his own filth, in a government provided house, and a government provided can of VB?

Here we come to grips with the very essence of modern aboriginal culture.

A stray dog does not expect you to feed it, but if you do, it comes to expect it and will complain if you don't.

Seriously, that's all there is. Aboriginals immediately spend their tax-payer funded dole money on cheap booze, cheap smokes and Cray supercomputers within one hour of having been issued with their fortnightly allotment. Woe betide them! They've now spent all their free white devil money on white devil comestibles! How will they now feed their millions of fly-blown, illiterate children?

How indeed? So more money is issued, which is immediately spent on booze, woe betide, how indeed, more money, etc.

There comes a time where keeping a human ant farm stops being fun, that time is when it starts costing hundreds of millions of dollars, and at the end of the day, the only change is the ring of VB stubbies around the naked man crouching in his own filth.

Little (fucking) scared abo girl.

Lose a thong, mate?

"Nah, I found one"

Due to an aboriginal's aforementioned pathological inability to spend money in a productive, life-enriching manner, they have become notorious scroungers. It's certainly not uncommon to encounter a specimen in the wild wearing no, odd, or only one item of footwear. Further clothing is even more haphazard.

Government provided housing, in the two to three years before it collapses from neglect, tends to accumulate an unexplainable amount of urine-soaked mattresses and cushions. These are of course not for the children, who must sleep on the floor, but for the dozens of disease-ridden feral dogs abos tend to collect. Note of course that aboriginals are unable to feed themselves, let alone a fucking dog pound.

Don't consider this an affront to their intellect however. To suggest such a lifestyle is moronic would be racist. And only white people are racist.

Why are Abos called boongs?

They're called Boongs because that's the sound they make when they get hit by a semi. Video provides excellent example with a firetruck.

If you don't own a semi and see an abo on the side of the road, opening your passenger-side door and collecting him as you pass makes an acceptable substitute.

If you do happen to hit one and they bounce off your truck into the roadside bushes, you should immediately call the cops, who will shake your hand and charge him with leaving the scene of an accident. If the abo has gone through your windscreen, they will charge him with breaking and entering instead.

NOTE: It says WIN News at the start. They obviously named the network in anticipation of this moment.

If you are concerned about the above video, we wish to inform you that there was no damage to the firetruck, and the doctors at the hospital wasted no time, kicking Bruce (or Boongi-Dung-Dung De-Gonga-Wang-Doong as his family calls him) to the curb as soon as they realized he was an Abo, allowing more time for real patients.

In ending of this article the Aborginal, Abo or boong as they are called are basically the welfare subsidized listerine drinking, petrol sniffing of the Native American mixed with the welfare subsidized thugging, and hip hop playing gangsta behavior of the American Nigger.

SPECIAL MENTION: Steve Gumerungi Hodder Watt

Steve Gumerungi Hodder Watt is an Ozzy-nigger from Alice Springs. Just like American niggers he has a career in Hip-Hop rather than a real job and preaches the horror of racial intolerance every Sorry Day. After many years of training he somehow managed to life his knuckles from the ground and learned how to use the interwebs. He got a nasty surprise.

Steve with one of the apes he is closely descended from.

THAT'S RACIST!!1!

Steve stumbled across Encyclopedia Dramatica's article on the indigenous ~~people~~ cavemen of Australia in January 2010. Once somebody read the text for him he was shocked and appalled to find his people were depicted in a less than flatter manner and ordered the site be removed from Google's search engine. He naturally assumed the creator of this site is white. As expected Steve handled his outrage in a calm and reasonable manner by vandalising the Aboriginal article over and over again.

- Wtfyounerdlings
- Swarm of retards Ironically his username best describes his race.
- Mackiebob
- Suckme

Like all people who pretend to be oppressed Steve thinks Encyclopedia Dramatica is racist - overlooking the fact that ED treats all races people (and a few non-people) with equal disgust. Also like all people who try to fight racial intolerance Steve is the palest member of his family. We can therefore assume his butthurt antics are the result of white guilt.

Sadly for Steve his victory was unfounded. He may have removed the Aboriginal article from google, but after the ACMA drops none of ED will be available to anybody in Australia anyway.
